SIR HENRY MORGAN, BUCCANEER

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY,

Author of "The Southerners," "For Love of Country," "The Grip of Honor," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1903, BY G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY

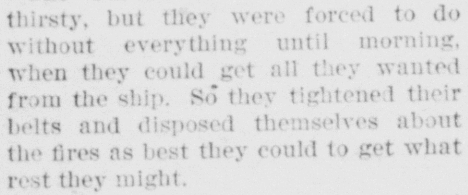
The buccaneers were hungry and thirsty, but they were forced to do without everything until morning, when they could get all they wanted from the ship. So they tightened their belts and disposed themselves about the fires as best they could to get what rest they might.

Morgan and the officers drew apart and consulted long and earnestly over the situation. They could never make the ship seaworthy again. To build a smaller one out of her timbers would be the work of months, and when it was finished it could not possibly carry the whole crew. To march westward toward the isthmus meant to encounter terrific hardships for days; their presence would speedily become known, and they would be constantly menaced or attacked by troops from the heavily garrisoned places like Porto Bello and Cartagena. Back of them a short distance away lay La Guayra. It could be taken by surprise, Morgan urged, and easily captured. If they started to march westward the Indians would apprise the Spaniards of their presence and they would have to fight their way to the Pacific. If they took La Guayra, then the viceroy, with the treasure of his palace and the opulent city of Caracas, would be at their mercy. They could ravage the two towns, seize the first ship that came to the roadstead and make their way to the isthmus safely and speedily. As to the treasure on the galleon, the buccaneer captain proposed to unload it and bury it in the sand and after they had captured La Guayra it would be easy to get it back again.

Morgan's counsel prevailed, and his was the resolution to which they came. The council of war broke up thereafter, and those not told off to watch with the guards went to sleep near the fires. Morgan, under the guardianship of the faithful Black Dog, threw himself upon the ground to catch a few hours' rest.

The next morning the wind had died away and the sea was fairly calm. The men swam out to the galleon, found her still intact, though badly strained, and by means of boats and rafts, working with persistent energy, succeeded in landing and burying the treasure under the very palm tree which held the rope that had given them salvation.

Morgan's plan was an excellent one, the best that could be suggested in the straits they then were, and it received the hearty assent of all the men. It took them all day to land the treasure and make their other preparations, which included the manufacture of several rude scaling ladders, pieces of timber with crosspieces nailed upon them, which could be used in surmounting the walls of the town. In the evening the order of march was arranged and their departure set for the morrow. They had saved their treasure, they had food in plenty now, and with dry clothes and much rum they began to take a more cheerful view of life. They were fairly content once more.



Burying the treasure

The next day, in the afternoon—for he desired to approach the town at nightfall—Morgan gave the order to advance. He was as much of a soldier as a sailor and sent ahead a party of choice spirits under Teach, while the main body followed some distance behind. As the shades of evening descended a messenger from the advance guard came back with the news that a party of travelers had been seen coming down the mountain; that they comprised a half dozen troopers, a number of slaves, a heavily laden pack train and two women.

Teach had stationed his men under the trees at a bend of the road around which the travelers had to pass, and he awaited Morgan's orders. Taking a detachment of the most reliable men, with Velsers and Hornigold, and bidding the other officers and men to stand where they were until he sent word, Morgan and those with him ran rapidly forward until they came to the ambuscade which young Teach had artfully prepared. He and his had scarcely time to dispose themselves for concealment before a soldier came riding carelessly down the road. Waiting until the man had passed him a short distance and until the other unsuspicious travelers were fairly abreast the liers in wait, whom he had charged on no account to move until he gave the word, Morgan stepped out into the open and called. The buccaneers instantly followed him.

As the soldier saw these fierce looking men spring before him out of the darkness he cried aloud. The next moment he was shot dead by Morgan himself. At the same instant a volley rang out at contact range, and every man in the party fell to the ground. Some were killed, others only wounded. All of them except Alvarado were injured in some way. He struck spurs into his horse when he heard the cry of Fadrique and the shot. The surprised barb plunged forward, was hit by half a dozen bullets, fell to the ground in a heap and threw his rider over his head. The Spaniard scrambled to his feet, whipped out his sword, lunged forward and drove his blade into the breast of old Velsers. The next instant a dozen weapons flashed over his head. One rang upon his steel casque; another crashed against the polished breastplate that he wore. He cut out again in the darkness and once more fleshed his weapon.

Women's screams rose above the tumult. Beating back the swords which menaced him, although he was reeling from the blows which he had received, Alvarado strove to make his way toward Donna Mercedes when he was seized in the darkness from behind.

"Kill him!" cried a voice in English, which Alvarado and Mercedes both understood perfectly. "He's the only one alive."

"Nay," cried another voice, stronger and sterner, "save him. We'll question him later. Did any escape?"

"Not one."

"Are there any horses alive?"

"Two or three."

"Bring them hither. Now back to the rest. Then we can show a light and see what we have captured. Teach, lead on. Let no harm come to the women."

"Aye, aye," answered another voice out of the darkness, and a third voice growled out:

"Hadn't we better make sure that none are alive to tell the tale?"

"Of course; a knife for the wounded," answered the stern voice, "and bear a hand."

Greatly surprised and unable to comprehend anything but that his men had been slaughtered and no harm had as yet befallen his charges, Alvarado, whose arms had been bound to his side, found himself dragged along in the wake of his captors, one or two of whom, mounted on the unwounded horses, with the two women between them, rode rapidly down the road.

CHAPTER XV.

ONE hundred yards or so beyond the place of the ambush the road dropped sharply over the last cliff to the narrow strand which led to the west wall of La Guayra, distant half a mile away. They had all been under the deep shadow of the thick trees overhanging the way until this instant, but in the faint light cast by the moon just risen Alvarado could see that a great body of people were congregated before him on the road. Who they were and what they were he could not surmise. He was not long left in doubt, however, for the same voice whose commanding tones had caused his life to be spared now called for lights. The demand was obeyed with a promptness that bespoke fear, indeed, or discipline of the sternest, and soon the captives found themselves in a circle of lurid light sent forth by a number of blazing torches. The illumination revealed to Alvarado as villainous and terrible looking a body of men as he had ever seen. The first glance convinced him that they were not Spanish brigands or robbers. He was too young to have had dealings with the buccaneers of the past generation, but he realized that if any such remained on this side of the earth they must be like these men who surrounded him. He wasted no time in surmises, however, for after the first swift comprehensive glance his eyes sought Mercedes. She sat her horse free and uninjured, apparently, for which he thanked God. She was leaning forward over her saddle and staring in bewilderment and surprise at the scene and confusion before her.

"Donna Mercedes," cried Alvarado, turning himself about in spite of his bonds and the restraint his immediate captors endeavored to put upon him, "are you safe—unhurt?"

"Safe," answered the girl. "And thou?"

"Well but for these bonds."

"God be thanked! Who are these men?"

"I know not, but"—

"Oh, sir," interrupted Senora Agapida, recovering her voice at the sound of the Spanish tongue. "What does this mean? Save us!"

"Senora," said that same sharp voice, but this time speaking in the Spanish tongue, as a tall man, hat in hand, urged his horse forward, "fear nothing; you shall be protected. And you, senorita. Do I not have the honor of addressing Donna Mercedes de Lara?"

"That is my name," answered the girl haughtily. "Who are you? Why have you shot my people and seized me prisoner?"

"For love of you, Mistress Mercedes."

"Just heaven! Who are you, I say?" cried the girl at this startling answer, turning in surprise and terror to look upon his countenance.

There was something familiar in the man's face that called up a vague recollection which she strove to master.

"Who are you?" she cried again.

"Sir Harry Morgan," answered the horseman, bowing low over the saddle, "a free sailor, at your service, madam."

"My God!" cried Alvarado, who had listened attentively. "The buccaneer?"

"The same," answered Morgan, turning to him.

"Sir Harry Morgan! Were you not governor of Jamaica last year?" asked Mercedes in astonishment.

"I had that honor, lady."

"Why are you now in arms against us?"

"A new king, Mistress de Lara, sits the English throne. He likes me not. I and these gallant seamen are going to establish a kingdom in some sweet island in the south seas with our good swords. I would fain have a woman to bear me company on the throne. Since I saw you in Jamaica last year I have designed you for the honor"—

"Monster!" screamed the girl, appalled by the hideous leer which accompanied his words. "Rather anything"—

"Sir," interrupted Alvarado, "you are an Englishman. Your past rank should warrant you a gentleman but for this. There is no war between England and Spain. What is the meaning of this outrage? This lady is the daughter of the viceroy of Venezuela. I am his captain and the comandante of yonder city of La Guayra. You have waylaid us, taken us at a disadvantage. My men are killed. For this assault his excellency will exact bloody reparation. Meanwhile give order that we be unbound, and let us pass."

"Ho, ho!" laughed the buccaneer. "Think you I fear the viceroy? Nay, not his majesty of Spain himself! I came here with set purpose to take La Guayra and then Caracas and to bear away with me this pretty lady, upon whom, I repeat, I design to bestow the honor of my name."

As he spoke he leaned toward Mercedes, threw his arm around her waist and before she was even aware of his intention kissed her roughly on the cheek.

"Lads," he cried, "three cheers for the future Lady Morgan!"

Antigua, B. W. I., June 9.—The British bark Andes loaded with asphalt in barrels, which was on fire, blew up and will prove a total loss.

HAD GOOD EFFECT

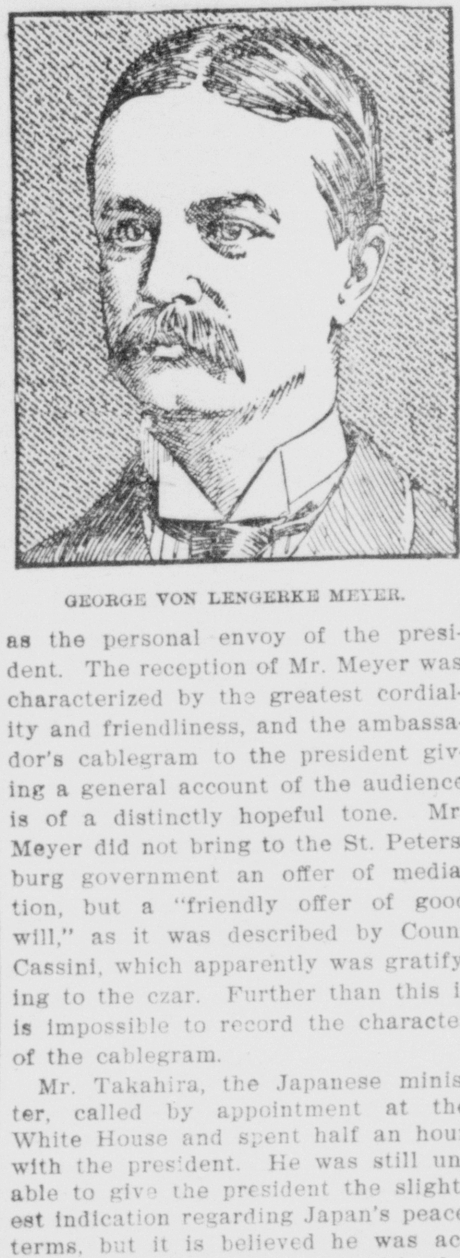
President's Movement in Behalf of Peace Well Received by Czar.

A CORDIAL RECEPTION

Was Given the American Ambassador When He Carried the President's Offer of Goodwill.

The Ambassador's Account of the Audience Is of a Distinctly Hopeful Tone.

Washington, June 9.—The czar has at last been heard from here, and the result is not unfavorable to peace. In his recent audience with Mr. Meyer, the American ambassador, the czar indicated a willingness to take under advisement the subject of peace and expressed a warm appreciation of the friendly words of Mr. Meyer, speaking as the personal envoy of the president. The reception of Mr. Meyer was characterized by the greatest cordiality and friendliness, and the ambassador's cablegram to the president giving a general account of the audience is of a distinctly hopeful tone. Mr. Meyer did not bring to the St. Petersburg government an offer of mediation, but a "friendly offer of good will," as it was described by Count Cassini, which apparently was gratifying to the czar. Further than this it is impossible to record the character of the cablegram.



GEORGE VON LENGERKE MEYER.

Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, called by appointment at the White House and spent half an hour with the president. He was still unable to give the president the slightest indication regarding Japan's peace terms, but it is believed he was acquainted in a general way with the hopeful tone of Mr. Meyer's dispatch, and with this as a lever the hope is expressed here that the mikado will meet the president half way in the earnest efforts he is making to assist in bringing about an early peace.

Baron Kaneko, the Japanese financial adviser, was also received by the president and discussed the whole situation for some time. Baron Kaneko said that Japan had not received directly or indirectly any request from Russia for a statement of peace terms. It was intimated that Japan would be loathe to give any such statement until convinced that Russia was prepared to take up the question of peace with the intention of ending the war.

It is not expected that the situation will change radically in the next day or two. Until some indication comes from Japan of her attitude in the light of the spirit shown by the czar, the negotiations can hardly be expected to progress. Meantime powerful, though friendly influence is being brought to bear on Japan to be moderate in her demands. It has been pointed out that Japan and Russia must always be close neighbors, and that if Japan is unreasonable now in her great triumph she might again be involved in war with Russia. What effect these representations may have on the mikado is of course only conjectural.

Strong hopes were entertained here in the highest circles that London could be relied on for active assistance in counselling moderation to Japan. These hopes have not yet been realized, although information has been received that Great Britain will welcome peace. It is still hoped, however, that some assistance from that quarter may yet be forthcoming. Berlin and Paris are both giving loyal assistance to the efforts initiated in Washington, and the result of Berlin's activity is already being felt.

HISTORIC DOCUMENT

Zemstvo's Demand for Peace and Better Things in Russia.

St. Petersburg, June 9.—The voice of the delegates of the zemstvos and of the municipalities demanding in no uncertain tone the immediate convocation of a national assembly to pass upon the question of peace or war, to heal internal strife, and to unite the people for the rejuvenation of Russia will be heard in the address adopted by the all-Russian zemstvo congress at Moscow, which a deputation headed by Count Hayden and M. Shipoff is bringing to present to the emperor. The document bids fair to become history. The customary phrases of respect at the opening and the closing are omitted and it is otherwise unceremonious, employing the direct personal pronoun.

The address arraigns the bureaucracy and reminds the emperor that his pledge to convoke a national assembly is slow of fulfillment. It says the country is on the verge of civil war, and even ventures to criticise a royal measure, contrasting the increase of the police power by the ukase issued last Sunday with a weakening of the administrative process which the country had been led to expect.

The address urges the summoning of a national assembly that the war may become national or cease, and concludes with a solemn reminder of the sovereign's duty to God and the fatherland and a prayer for action before it is too late.

There is intense interest to learn whether the emperor will receive the bearers of so bold a message couched in terms such as have never before been used between the emperor and his subjects. The address is buttressed with a stream of petitions from individual zemstvos and municipalities. The doumas of nearly all the principal cities have addressed the throne praying that the representatives of the people be summoned at once.

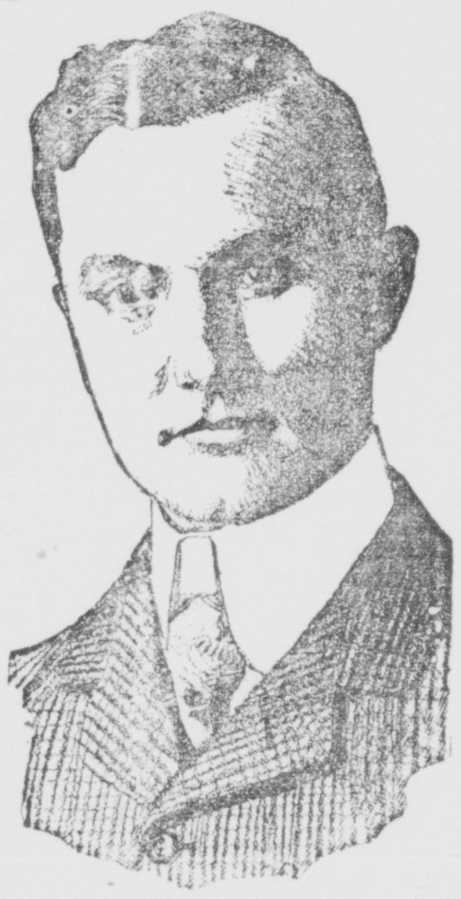
The Losses Grow.

Gunshu Pass, Manchuria, June 9.—According to reports received by General Linevitch from naval officers who have arrived at Vladivostok, the losses of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet were from nine to ten thousand officers and men killed or drowned and about five thousand prisoners.

OPINION RESERVED

Judge Cochran Will Take Two Weeks to Decide Powers Case.

Maysville, Ky., June 9.—Arguments were concluded last evening in the United States district court before Judge Cochran for and against the removal of the case of Caleb Powers, under sentence of death for alleged complicity in the assassination of Governor Goebel from the Scott county circuit court to the United States district court. At the close of the arguments Judge Cochran adjourned court and his opinion will be reserved for at least two weeks.



CALEB POWERS.

Will Entertain a Prince.

New York, June 9.—Paul Morton, secretary of the navy, called on Mayor McClellan in his official capacity to discuss the proposed entertainment of Prince Louis of Battenburg, who is coming here with a British fleet in October. Prince Louis is an admiral in the British navy and a nephew of King Edward VII. No plans were agreed on. Governor Higgins is to be asked to co-operate so that the city and state may combine in an official welcome.

Entertained in Virginia.

Washington, June 9.—Mrs. Roosevelt will be entertained for several days by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilmer at their old Virginia homestead at Rapidan. She has left Washington for her outing unaccompanied by any of her children.

A NEW REPUBLIC

This Will Probably Follow Peacable Norse Revolution.

HUNTING FOR A KING

Norwegians Find That There Is a Doubt About Getting a Ruler From a Favorite House.

Should Their Invitation Be Rejected They Will Set Up a Republic.

Copenhagen, June 9.—It is reported that the Norwegian government, in view of King Oscar's apparently definite refusal to consider the offer of the storthing to place a prince of the house of Bernadotte on the throne, has privately approached the Danish royal family to ascertain if an offer of the throne would be received by a member of it, preferably Prince Charles, son of Crown Prince Frederick. The general opinion expressed here is that such an offer would be refused.

According to reports from Stockholm, King Oscar may be induced to reverse his decision and to favorably regard the offer of the throne for a member of his house. Leading Swedish politicians are much devided over the question, which it is understood will not be definitely decided prior to the extraordinary session of the riksdag.

Authoritative information received from Norwegian circles represents the majority of Norwegians as opposed to giving the throne to a prince of the house of Bernadotte. It is stated that if King Oscar should definitely refuse the throne for a member of his family, and that if the Danish royal family should likewise refuse to place one of its princes on it, Norway will become a republic, and that this is favored by the mass of the population.

The storthing, however, believed that the offer of the throne to a prince of the house of Bernadotte would facilitate future negotiations with Sweden over the common interests of both countries. It is understood that these negotiations will be begun as soon as possible after special envoys have been sent to the powers requesting the recognition of the independence of Norway.

CAUSED SCARCELY A RIPPLE

Swedes Not the Least Excited Over Norse Revolution.

Stockholm, June 9.—According to the latest news from all parts of the country the Norwegian coup d'etat has been received with calmness bordering on indifference. Beyond demonstrations of loyalty to the throne, there is no sign here that anything unusual has happened. All kinds of business is continued as usual and there is not a single worker less in the workshops. The crisis is hardly discussed among the working classes, and where the subject is discussed at all there is no word spoken of an appeal to arms. The universal view is that Norway and the Norwegians will be the only sufferers.

King Oscar's attitude meets with complete approval, and although hopes are expressed that the powers will delay recognizing the new kingdom, and although the interval before parliament meets here may give an opportunity for some compromise to be arranged, it is believed that the separation will be peacefully consummated. Then the only points of interest will be as to what form of government Norway will adopt and as to the question of defense against Russia for which an offensive and defensive alliance between Norway and Sweden is considered essential. It is understood that negotiations between the two countries will be instituted as soon as possible, especially on common economic questions.

Not Satisfactorily Explained.

Trinidad, Col., June 8.—W. G. Plested, temporary receiver of the defunct American Savings bank, states that the investigation up to this time shows a discrepancy of $20,000 which has not been satisfactorily explained to him; also that all of the officers of the bank except Mary Lynch, the president, withdrew their deposits on May 26. The bank closed its doors June 1.

Didn't Reach the Funds.

Paris, Ill., June 9.—The Edgar County National bank was wrecked by a charge of nitroglycerine. Bradshaw's jewelry store and Wetzel's shoe store also were demolished. The bank vault was wrecked, but the smaller safe, in which were the funds, was merely overturned and is still intact.

But Four Escape.

Plymouth, Eng., June 9.—While submarine "A8" was manouvering off this port three explosions occurred and the boat sank. Eighteen men were aboard the submarine, of whom only four escaped.

The Incident Closed.

Washington, June 9.—Governor Wright has cabled Secretary Taft officially, notifying him that the orders of the president regarding the Russian ships in Manila have been carried out.

BUILT UP HER HEALTH

SPEEDY CURE OF MISS GOODE

She Is Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Writes Gratefully to Mrs. Pinkham.

For the wonderful help that she has found Miss Cora Goode, 355 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Ill., believes it her duty to write the following letter for publication, in order that other women afflicted in the same way may be benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes:

Miss Cora Goode

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I tried many different remedies to try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since."

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, faintness indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. Address, Lynn, Mass.

LOCKED THEM ALL UP

Labor Union's Silence on Tragedy Leads to Wholesale Arrests.

Philadelphia, June 9.—Sixty members of the local branch of the National Structural Iron Workers and the Bridge Builders' union are locked up in a station house here, pending the solving of a mystery surrounding the probably fatal shooting of one of the members of the organizations. The victim's name is Edward Joyce, of Washington, D. C. He is in a dangerous condition, but refuses to tell the name of the man who shot him.

There was a meeting of the union last night which Joyce attended. How the shooting occurred and who did it has not yet been definitely determined. As none of the members of the union would disclose the name of the man who fired the shot at Joyce, the police decided to lock up all the men found in the meeting room and hold them until they learn who did the shooting.

Marion Parrot's New Stunt.

Marion, Ind., June 9.—Claude N. Martin of the Marion police board has a parrot that has learned to imitate a trombone. A brass band passed the Martin home last week, playing a lively march. The parrot seemed to take an active interest in the man who was playing the trombone. After the band had passed the bird was silent for some time. Then it began to imitate the trombone accurately. Ever since it has "played" the trombone whenever called on.

$500 REWARD! FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they can not cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Their financial responsibility is well known to every newspaper publisher and druggist in the United States, with most of whom they have done business for over a third of a century. From this fact it will readily be seen how utterly foolish it would be for them to make the above unprecedented and remarkable offer if they were not basing their offer on curative means having an unparalleled record. No other medicine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription could possibly "win out," as the saying goes, on such a proposition. But they know whereof they speak. They have the most remarkable record of cures made by this world-famed remedy ever placed to the credit of any preparation especially designed for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. This wonderful remedy, therefore, stands absolutely alone as the only one possessed of such remarkable curative properties as would warrant its makers in publishing such a marvelous offer as is above made in the utmost good faith.

"I want to tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having any health again. Could not sit up all day. I noted a great improvement before the first bottle was used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to; had inflammation of ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and not feel tired."

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

If you are looking for a perfect laxative try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

QUITE a crowd of old soldiers are planning to go from here to Madison next week to attend the annual G. A. R. encampment. Madison is counting on 20000 people the day of the parade but their figures are probably a little too high.

THE REPUBLICAN is under obligation to W. G. Reynolds for a copy of the Wewahitchka News which is doubtless representative of the country newspaper in Florida. Mr. Reynolds is in the employ of the Loxley Lumber Co. at Apalachicola, Florida.

THE purpose of the council to know the rights the public have in St. Louis avenue before letting a contract for a new city building is proper and right In such matters nothing should be taken for granted. There is no division of the council on this matter. The question will be looked into thoroughly before the next council meeting.

THE man with an imaginary grievance who brutally assaulted the editor of the Washington Herald has only made trouble for himself. Besides what expense he will be put to by a trial in circuit court, the result of which will be a heavy fine and probably a jail sentence, he has lowered himself in the estimation of the community. Right now he probably thinks less of himself than he did before the assault.

IN INDIANAPOLIS the contest fo nominations for city offices is warming up. The republicans have two candidates for mayor and the contest between these two men is spirited. If the republicans of Indianapolis do not get together and win in the election next fall the republicans over the state will have more reason than ever to think that Indianapolis republicans better take a back seat until they show better results on their city elections.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

The Pennsylvania train due here at 10:06 a m. was an hour late today, being delayed at Columbus.

A special train will be run from Columbus again tonight to bring Seymour people back from the carnival.

John Wheeler, who was hurt by an accident in the railroad shops at Washington where he was employed last March has brought suit against the B. & O. S-W. railroad company for damages for personal.

MARRIED.

HUFFMAN-SMASHEY.

Harvey R. Huffman and Miss Atta Smashey were united in marriage Friday evening at the home of the bride on William street, Elder J. D. Garrison being the officiating minister. Mr. Huffman is night operator at the tower, is a young man of good habits, and comes from one of Seymour's best families, his father, Rev. S. H. Huffman, being a Baptist preacher. Mr. and Mrs. Huffman will remain in this city until fall, when it is their intention to go to California to reside.—Lawrenceburg Press.

Still Improving.

Reports from Cincinnati bring the information that Win Riley continues to improve and his complete recovery is expected. He is still at Bett's Street Hospital where he is receiving the best possible care.

About 300 Seymour people visited the Columbus carnival yesterday and about 100 went earlier in the week. Several more went today and others will go tomorrow.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the conditions of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, belching, sour stomachs weak heart, etc. Sold by A. J. Pellens and W. F. Peter Drug Co.

CITY COUNCIL.

Proceedings Of Regular Meeting Last Night.

The city council met in regular session last night, Mayor Graessle was in the chair and all councilmen were present. Minutes of the last regular meeting were read and adopted.

There were no reports from standing or special committeee

The street commissioner made a report of work done by him the past two weeks.

The city attorney reported that by the request of the council he had examined into the B. & O S-W. railroad's title to that part of St. Louis avenue lying north of block O between Chestnut street and Jeffersonville avenue and found that by a decision of the supreme court it has been established that the railroad company owns in fee simple an 80 foot right-of way through the city, the same having been deeded to the O. & M. railroad in 1853 by Meedy W. Shields, and later transferred to the B. & O S-W. railroad company. The attorney stated that the railroad's title to an 80 foot right-of way had been fully established by the supreme court's decision

The mayor called attention to the standing committees that all of them but one had failed to meet with him for conference at the dates appointed. He urged them to keep these appointments in mind. He also said that committees must report in writing matters referred to them.

Mills offered a petition signed by Allen Swope, S. A. Barnes, U. F. Lewis and others for the construction of an eight inch sewer north and south through Block 2 in the alley and connecting with the school house sewer the owners of abutting property to pay for sewer except intersections. The petition was followed by a resolution for this improvement which was adopted. Property owners affected will be heard at the council meeting June 27.

Buhner offered a resolution to improve all unimproved portions on both sides of Laurel street from P. C. C. & St. L. railroad to O'Brien street; also sidewalk on south side of lot No. 6 in Block S. also sidewalk on north side lot No. 1 in Block S. also the unimproved parts of sidewalk on west side of Vine street from Laurel street south to corporation. All these improvements to be made of concrete.

Buhner offered a resolution for several concrete street crossings in the Third ward which resolution was lost by a majority vote.

The following resolution was offered by Love and adopted by a vote of 7 to 3.

Whereas in cities of the fifth class the powers and duties of city judge shall wholly devolve upon the mayor, and wheras all fees so collected shall become the property of the city, therefore be it Resolved by the common council of the city of Seymour that the mayor is hereby requested to hold court; to purchase the necessary docket, blank forms, that may be required by law; that the city marshal and night police be instructed to file all cases for violation of city ordinances and the penal statutes of the state of Indiana before the mayor for plea thereto and for trial. All as provided by an act entitled an act for municipal corporations, being chapter 129 of acts of 1905.

Under the call of miscellaneous business several matters of minor importance, most of them pertaining to street repair work, were introduced and disposed of.

Bretthauer handed up a petition praying the council to further consider the site for the proposed new city building and fire department house, advocating the purchase of more ground along side the lot now owned by the city on Chestnut street, or exchanging that lot for the 75 foot lot further south on Chestnut street and owned by W. T. Branaman. One of the points made by the petitioners concerned the railroad's title to St. Louis avenue as established by the supreme court which raised a doubt as to the advisability of having the fire department building open on the railroad's right of-way without first securing concessions from the railroad company.

Action on the petition was deferred until after a committee consisting of the Mayor and Councilmen Mills and Miller together with M. S. Blish has sufficient time to confer with the management of the B. & O. S-W. railroad about the question raised by the petitioners. They expect to be ready with a report by next council meeting.

Bids were opened for the construction of a concrete street crossing at the intersection of Brown and Walnut streets. Joseph Burkart proposed to do the work for 11½ cents per square foot and William Railing proposed to do it for 9½ cents per square foot. Railing's bid being the lowest he was awarded the contract.

Council adjourned at 9:45.

Engineer Hurt.

Reported that Engineer Thomas Ackley fell from his engine Thursday afternoon and broke his collar bone.—Washington Democrat.

About all that is known of the accident here is that it occurred at Cincinnati and that he was out of the cab at the time fixing something about the engine and his head came in contact with an overhead bridge, knocking him to the ground.

WORLD'S FASTEST

Long-Distance Trains Run Over Pennsylvania Lines.

The swiftest traveling on the globe is realized with the establishment of the daily 18-hour trains between New York and Chicago in both directions over the Pennsylvania Lines. The certainty of these being the fastest long-distance trains in the world is backed up by the fact that high speed schedules with the Pennsylvania mean more than a mere announcement. They mean that these trains run on time.

The completion of more tracks for the handling of freight traffic has cleared the way for the establishment of additional fast passenger trains to meet the increased demands of the passenger traffic. The straightening and shortening of the passenger lines, accomplished in the last few years at an expenditure of millions of dollars, has justified the establishment of new high-speed trains.

The highest standard of railway roadbed in the world is one of the things in which the Pennsylvania System leads, imparting the confidence to travelers which adds to the comfort and security of fast riding over the solid stretches of steel.

Eastward, "The Pennsylvania Special" leaves Chicago 2:45 every afternoon, arrives Pittsburg 11:59 p. m., Harrisburg 5:55 a. m, North Philadelphia 7:54 a. m, and New York 9:45 in the morning.

Westward, "The Pennsylvania Special" leaves New York 3:55 every afternoon, North Philadelphia 5:42 p. m., Harrisburg 7:42 p. m., Pittsburg 11:35 at night, arriving in Chicago 8:55 in the morning.

The equipment of the new special train includes Pullman library-smoking car, drawing-room state-room sleeping car, Pennsylvania dining car and observation compartment car, representing a cost of $100,000 for each train Features of "The Pennsylvania Special" include barber, bath room, waiting maid for ladies, stenographer, mail box, writing desks, periodicals and a library. An innovation will be the serving of afternoon tea at 4 o'clock in the observation car, which passengers on the trains may enjoy without any charge

A Fearful Fight.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. A NEW CHAPTER

Bookwalter Tells of Machine's Scheme to Sidetrack Him.

Indianapolis, June 9.—A new chapter of the Republican contest for municipal offices here was related last night by ex-Mayor Bookwalter at a First ward meeting when he declared that ex-City Chairman Logsdon and other backers of Frank D. Stalnaker came to him and offered to nominate him for congress to succeed Congressman Overstreet if he would stay out of the mayoralty race. Bookwalter said he told Logsdon he could not swing Stalnaker on the proposition, whereupon Logsdon, he says, assured him that Stalnaker would help carry out the deal. Bookwalter says he informed Logsdon and others who came to see him in the matter that he does not want to go to congress, but that he is a candidate for mayor. He also declared that Logsdon and a party leader from each of the fifteen wards met at Logsdon's office to agree on a candidate for mayor and selected Stalnaker. Bookwalter says he told them he would not be forced out by any decision of their's, but that he would ask the people who they wanted for mayor. He declared that he will win easily.

The advocates of the anti-cigarette law are much chagrined at the decision of Judge James M. Leathers of the superior court in which the indictment of a man charged with having a cigarette in his possession, was quashed. The effect of Judge Leathers' decision was to hold the anti-cigarette law constitutional in so far as it applies to selling or giving away cigarettes within the borders of the state. To that degree it applies, he said, to smoker and dealer, but he declared that when a person imports cigarettes in original packages from another state he is engaged in interstate commerce and he cannot be prohibited by the action of the legislature. He cannot, however, permit any of the cigarettes to get out of his possession when the original package is broken. He must not sell or give any away under the same penalty as the new law provides for dealers who sell to the public. The judge expressed the opinion that cigarettes are a commercial article, and as the supreme court of the United States has decided that the right of a citizen to carry on interstate commerce is conferred by the federal constitution, it cannot be controlled or limited by the state.

Colonel George B. Lockwood, who was private secretary to Governor Durbin during the last two years of the latter's administration, was here today. He is now residing at Winona Assembly, being secretary of the association. A new and revised edition of his book, "The New Harmony Communities," has just come from the press of D. Appleton & Co., Chicago. The title has been slightly changed. It is now "The New Harmony Movement." The book has been revised for the use of the State Teachers' Reading Circle, by which it has been taken up. Covering as it does an important epoch in the history and development of this section of the country, and written in Lockwood's vigorous style, it is a book of intense interest, especially to those who are interested in the subject on which it treats. It is regarded as a valuable contribution to the history of the state and has attracted favorable attention in other countries.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, cough and colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of throat and lungs. At W. F Peter Drug Co, price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

NO FEE TO FISH

In Michigan, the Mecca This Year of Indiana Tourists as in Years Past.

Positive information received from Michigan authorities states there is no truth whatever in a report that an annual fee of $25 or any other fee is to be imposed on non-resident fishermen in Michigan. A rumor of such a law having been passed in Michigan is stamped as absolutely without foundation

The origin of this false report is traced to talk current last winter when a question was raised in legislative proceedings concerning the subject, but no action taken, legislators not deeming such a measure advisable. Nothing further has been done, and tourists from Indiana are assured that they need not forego their customary outing to Michigan resorts this summer on the score of being confronted by a tax collector, for there are none such to bar the way.

Judging from the many inquiries already received by W. W. Richardson, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines, Indianapolis, regarding Michigan resorts and the famous fishing, there will be more than the usual number of Indiana tourists enjoy their summer outing in those health and pleasure havens where either hay fever nor fishing fees exist.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Too Old For Tricks

What excuse have you for buying Ebner's coal and manufactured ice?

None, if you are not particular about quality, quantity and what you pay.

But if you want a "square deal"—that's different.

Ebner's sell only the best grades of coal, including Old Lee Anthracite, at the lowest market prices.

Ebner's sell only pure ice that is manufactured at their own ice plant, and that is guaranteed to be clean and solid.

Ebner's never sold poor coal nor a "short" ton, neither have they ever sold anything but the best and cleanest ice, full weight. They have been in business too long to commence doing it now.

One Salary Sufficient.

The Supreme Court this week denied the right of a county assessor to recover pay as such during the time he is serving as a member of the County Board of Review and receiving pay for acting on the board. John Dailey, county assessor of Daviess county, asked pay in both capacities at the same time, asserting that he did a days work every day on the County Board of Review between the hours of 9 and 4 and did a day's work each day outside of those hours as county assessor. This decision establishes the fact that the ex-officio members of the board of review have but one salary coming and that covers this service.

SSS THE BEST TONIC

When the system gets debilitated and in a run-down condition it needs a tonic and there has never been one discovered that is the equal of S. S. S. It is especially adapted for a systemic remedy, because it contains no strong minerals to derange the stomach and digestion, and affect the liver and bowels. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks selected for their purifying and healing qualities, and possesses just the properties that are needed to restore to the body strong robust health. When the blood becomes impure and clogged with waste matters and poisons the body does not receive sufficient nourishment and suffers from debility, weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion and many other disagreeable symptoms of a disordered blood circulation, and if it is not corrected some form of malignant fever or other dangerous disorder will follow. S. S. S. builds up the broken down constitution, clears the blood of all poisons and impurities and makes it strong and healthy. The nerves are restored to a calm restful state, refreshing sleep is had again, the appetite returns and the whole system is toned up by this great remedy. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic and acts promptly in this run-down depleted condition of the system. Book on the blood and medical advice furnished by our physicians, without charge.

I have used your S. S. S. and found it to be an excellent tonic to build up the general health and give tone and strength to the system. I have used other things highly recommended, but S. S. S. did me more good than everything else combined. As to its tonic properties it gives a splendid appetite, refreshing sleep, and the system undergoes a general building up under its invigorating influence.

SEEING AMERICA.

Wonderful Scenic Trip Across Rocky Mountains to Oregon Exposition.

In certain respects the excursions to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Oregon, via Pennsylvania Lines, beginning May 23rd and continuing through the summer, offer advantages never before presented to Exposition visitors. The trip to the Oregon Exposition, in addition to the attractiveness of the extensive exhibits, includes the journey through the scenic wonderland of the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and what American has not looked forward from the days of the geography class in school to the time when those great sights should be seen in reality? The time was never so favorable as now. The trip may be made less expensive than ever. For only a slight difference in fare tourists may extend their trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The return trip may be made over a different route, enabling travelers to view much more of the west. For full particulars, fares, dates of special excursions to Portland on account of conventions, through time and passenger service apply to ticket agent of Pennsylvania Lines.

Pudd'nhead Wilson's Vagary Now Finds Scientific Acceptance.

INDIANA TAKES IT UP

Secretary Butler Is Making a Series of Demonstrations With Thumbprints of Criminals.

As a Means of Identification These Are Now Regarded As Well Nigh Infallible.

Indianapolis, June 9.—Pudd'nhead Wilson's collection of thumbprints, which caused him to be regarded as a victim of a harmless mental affection, in Mark Twain's story, has long since gained the dignity of recognition as an important factor of criminal detection, which it is now proposed to adopt in Indiana. It is now known as the finger-print system. Authorities of the various penal and correctional institutions of the state are considering its use for the identification of prisoners in connection with the Bertillon system now in use. To this end Amos W. Butler, secretary of the board of state charities, is investigating the use of the finger-print system elsewhere.

Impressions of the ends of the four fingers and the thumb of each hand are taken separately, and an impression of the four fingers together of each hand is taken. The lines of the skin making these impressions are said never to change. A man might be identified by these characteristic marks years after the impressions were taken. The combination of the Bertillon and finger-print systems, therefore, is thought to be as nearly infallible as a method of identification can be made.

REMARKABLE CASE

Woman Living and Conscious With Two Bullets in Brain.

Westfield, Ind., June 9.—Mrs. Iva Harlan, who attempted suicide at her home near Jolietville, six miles west of this place, May 25, is still alive, with two bullets in her brain. She says that at first she tried to hang herself, and then to cut her throat with a butcher knife, and, not being successful in either, she then took paris green. This not acting as she expected, she procured a 22-caliber revolver and fired four shots, two at her forehead, neither of which penetrated the skull, then two at the side of the head, both of which penetrated the brain. After shooting herself, she lay down on the sofa but did not lose consciousness, and, noticing blood stains on her hands, arose and washed them away. Physicians at first pronounced death certain, but she has rapidly improved and may get better.

Her memory seems in no way affected by the bullets in her brain. Physicians say her case is a remarkable one.

He Blocked the Game.

Noblesville, Ind., June 9.—The sixteen cases against C. O. McNulty for alleged violation of the liquor laws were dismissed for want of sufficient testimony to convict. The ending was sudden and unexpected. Walter Carey, an attorney of Indianapolis who had assisted in the prosecution, left the courtroom and refused to return, saying the Anti-Saloon League had failed to keep its agreement in paying him $10 a day for his services, and he would have nothing more to do with the cases. He had the data of the evidence, which he refused to explain to Prosecutor Hines. The latter was unable to proceed without Mr. Carey's assistance, and Judge Artman instructed the jury to return a verdict of acquittal in the case called for trial, while the other fifteen cases were ordered dismissed. The court criticised Mr. Carey because of his withdrawal.

Restitution Is Demanded.

Wabash, Ind., June 9.—As the result of an investigation suit has been filed against John W. Gibney, ex-trustee of this (Noble) township, for $10,000, alleging that Gibney is indebted to the township in that sum. A local resident signed the complaint, demanding restitution as a taxpayer. It is charged that many of the vouchers of Gibney are false and fraudulent and drawn so as to conceal the expenditure of public funds for which the township received no benefit. The case will come up at the September term of the circuit court.

Remonstrance Was Dismissed.

South Bend, Ind., June 9.—After nearly a thousand witnesses had been subpoenaed and great expense had been entailed, the Seventh ward saloon remonstrance was dismissed by the county commissioners, and the costliest and most determined fight ever made in this city against the liquor interests was dropped. It is considered to be a body blow for the anti-saloon interests, and the liquor men are jubilant.

Tragedy of the Telephone.

Peru, Ind., June 9.—Patrick Carter, a lineman, was electrocuted by touching the transmitter of a telephone while a feed wire lay on the telephone wire.

The Children's Favorite.

For Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc., One Minute Cough Cure is the children's favorite. This is because it contains no opiate, is perfectly harmless, tastes good and cures. Sold by W. F. Peter and A. J. Pellens.

Weak Stomach.

A weak stomach is most frequently caused by the overworked and exhausted nervous system.

The power that runs the stomach is the nerve force sent to it from the brain through the nerves. When the nerves are weak or exhausted the supply of energy is insufficient and the action of the stomach is impaired, and results in imperfect digestion—dyspepsia.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine increases nerve force. It strengthens and builds up nerve tissue, gives vigor to the nerves and muscles of the stomach; this produces a healthy activity.

Nervine allays the inflammation, heals the membranes, and makes the stomach strong and healthy. There is nothing that so quickly gives energy to the whole system as Restorative Nervine.

"I can't say enough for Dr. Miles' Nervine. I don't know what it will do for others, but it certainly cured me of stomach trouble, and now I am as well as I ever was. Two physicians failed to relieve me, but in three or four days after taking Nervine I was much relieved. Four bottles made me a sound man, at the cost of $4.00."
JAMES E. HART, Detroit, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

A severe cold or attack of la grippe is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overpower it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to give a good old fashioned reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Boschee's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater household favor than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, allays the irritation and effectively stops the coughs. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. SPLIT IN THE RANKS

Is Promised for Chicago Team Owners' Association.

Chicago, June 9.—The teamsters' strike has reached the point where further progress and its further increase is dependent upon the action taken by the members of the Chicago Team Owners' association. This organization has from the first declined to make deliveries to the boycotted houses and has constantly urged the teamsters to arbitrate the question of making such deliveries. The teamsters have positively refused to deliver or receive goods, and now the last chance of securing any concessions from the teamsters having faded away, the members of the Team Owners' association must either decide to deliver goods or allow the teamsters to have their own way in the matter. Opinion among the members of the Team Owners' association is strongly divided and the result may be a split in its ranks. Several of the largest team owners in the city have announced that they are going to make deliveries, while other members of the association are undecided as to their course of action. A meeting of the organization will be held tonight and the action taken at that time will largely determine the future scope of the strike. If the Team Owners association decides to make deliveries and discharge all of its men who refuse to obey orders, the ranks of the strikers will be increased by about 8,000 men.
